

“Statistics remind us that significant transformations are still required to make education systems more inclusive and accessible...”

<https://www.un.org/development/desa/youth/news/2019/04/iyd-2/>

Youths attending school in 2010

59% 66%

of the males of the females

In 2010,

41%

of the total not school-attending male population completed upper secondary education

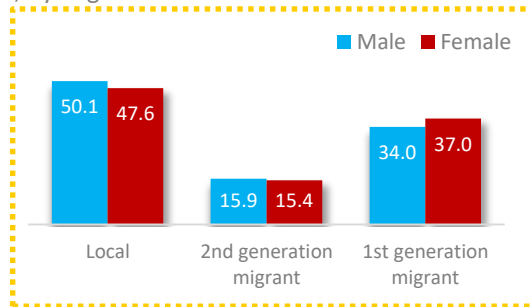

47%

of the total not school-attending female population completed upper secondary education

Youths not attending school in 2010, by migrant status

41% 34%

of the males of the females

*Local: person is born in Aruba with both parents born in Aruba
2nd generation migrant: person is born in Aruba with one foreign-born parent
1st generation migrant: person is foreign-born with both parents foreign-born*

Source: Fifth Population and Housing Census Aruba, 2010, CBS

Of all 3,145 persons who registered in 2018

5.5% 11.1% 42.7%
15-19 years 20-24 years born in Aruba

Of all 2,690 persons who de-registered in 2018

14.3% 16.8% 69.7%
15-19 years 20-24 years born in Aruba

As of 2nd qtr 2019
12%
of our population is aged 15-24 years

Of all 1,028 births in 2018

6.8% 24.2%
born to mothers aged 15-19 years born to mothers aged 20-24 years

20 80 ^{P/1000}
females 15-19 females 20-24

1% of all deaths in 2018 were aged 15-24 years

Source: Population Registry Office Aruba